SEVEN U. S. SHIPS ARE DESTROYED, MANY DIE, IN DENSE FOG

Running at Full Speed Ahead, Navy Destroy-
ers Crash On Rocks In Great Ocean Disaster.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 10.—The pounding waves of the Pacific are slowly breaking up seven Navy destroyers, which are piled like cord wood upon the jagged rocks of Point Arguello. The fog has caused the death of between twenty and twenty-five men in the crew.

The exact number of sailors drowned cannot be definitely determined.

The seas are running heavy, possibly reflecting the violence of earthquakes and tidal waves from Japan.
Running full speed ahead, twenty knots, through an impenetrable fog, the destroyers Delphi, Young, Woodbury, Chaney, Fuller, S. T. Lee and Nichols crashed on the rocks. Running in form and believing themselves eight miles off shore, the boats piled up like ships following a leader, and one steered by the light of the last ahead.

Only one man, a foreman named Cortney of the Delphi, has been officially listed as dead by the Navy Department. His body has been recovered.

Most of the crew of the Young has not yet been found, it is said.
They have been listed as missing.
Thirteen bodies received several injuries. At least a hundred more were on board and believed during the rescue after swimming through jagged rocks.

More than half of them, half clothed and unshaven go be and officers saved from the wreck's havoc, have been taken from wild, barren points at San Diego.

The rapid disappearance of lights warned eleven destroyer squadrons, which were following close behind and they rescued. Because of the proximity of the shore, however, they were unable to do much to help the others. They stood by and picked up bodies and rafts, which the government managed to cut free from the wreckage.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Sept. 9.—25 sailors lost their lives yesterday in the wreck of seven naval destroyers off Arguello light, 75 miles north of Santa Barbara, according to a staff correspondent of the Santa Barbara "Morning Press," who went to the spot.

A score of the injured are in the Santa Barbara County hospital and a relief party was on the way here tonight with 600 survivors. All the wrecked destroyers are total losses, according to statements credited to naval officials.

Los Angeles, Sept. 9.—In a series of disasters unprecedented in the history of Pacific coast navigation, seven United States navy destroyers and the Pacific mail liner Cuba today are piled up on the rocks of San Miguel Island and the shores of the Santa Barbara county coast line. The ships ran aground late last night during one of the heaviest and most impenetrable fogs ever seen on the Southern California coast, according to shipping men.

Thirty men missing
Thirty members of the crew of the United States destroyer Young, which overturned after striking the rocks off Point Arguello in the fog late Saturday night, were reported missing at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Seven destroyers ran ashore in the impenetrable fog that hung along the coast line and are being slowly battered to pieces by the surf Sunday.

Rainy Tolls of Crew
San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Eleven people were injured when five United States destroyers suffered a strange misadventure off Point Arguello, Calif., according to a radio report to the navy department, Sunday, from the commander of the Pacific battle fleet.

The message did not state whether the destroyers had run aground but reported that the fleet tug and three

The state capital at Yokohama one of the biggest and most modern

23,000 LOST LIVES IN YOKOHAMA ALONE; OFFICIAL FIGURES

Tokio, Sept. 9.—Twenty-three thousand persons were killed and 40,000 injured at Yokohama in the earthquake disaster, according to an official announcement.

Seventy per cent of the city of Tokio was destroyed.

In the Hakone district 10,000 are dead.

The Tokyo police have announced that up to Thursday morning the coroner had directed inquiries over 32,564 corpses in the Honjo military clothing warehouse and yards alone.

It had been learned that many passengers riding on the roofs of trains were knocked off and killed in Utsutama near Karuizawa.

CALCUTTA IS SHAKEN BY AN EARTHQUAKE; 50 REPORTED KILLED

Calcutta, Sept. 10.—Fifty persons were killed or injured and many houses collapsed in the Nymen Singh district of Calcutta when the city was shaken by a severe earthquake at 3:57
a. m. today.

TWO SMASHUPS NEAR KARTHAUS

The vicinity of Karthaus was the scene of two automobile wrecks Saturday and Sunday morning.

Saturday afternoon Charles Force, Superintendent for the Gonzales Coal Company, whose operation is near Karthaus, wrecked his machine when an axle broke while driving along the road. Mr. Force tried to ditch the machine but it ran up the bank and toppled over. When the car upset Force and a "Dutch" Barefield who was riding with him, were pinned under the machine. Mr. Force was quite severely injured and was taken to the Philipsburg hospital for medical treatment. Barefield suffered three fractured ribs and other bruises and cuts.

Sunday morning a crew of hundreds from Munson, who had just completed a new hunting camp in the mountains back of Karthaus, were on their way to camp with a cook stove and other equipment. Steve Koval, of Munson, was piloting the outfit.
When the top of Karthaus hill was reached the drive shaft broke and the driver turned his machine into the ditch, scattering cook stove and camp equipment generally all about the landscape in the turnover. The occupants of the truck fortunately

POSTMASTER CRAIN OF WINBURNE ON THE JOB

This morning we received one of the new Harding memorial stamps from our friend, Max Crain, postmaster of Winburne. Max was right on the job in ordering the new stamps, at least it is the first of them that we have seen in this neighborhood. They are beautiful in design.

HAD SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Mrs. Ryle Miller had a "shower" at her home in the Shaw Apartments on Saturday evening last for Miss Mabel Kilecnyne, whose wedding to Joseph Roessner will occur in St.
Francis church Tuesday morning.

LEAGUE ADJOURNS RATHER THAN MEET MUSSOLINI DEFY

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The League of Nations today once more evaded the question of its competency to deal with the Greco-Italian imbroglio by adjournment. While the adjournment ostensibly was voted out of sympathy for Japan, the action was interpreted as a maneuver to prevent dissatisfied delegates from forcing action by the Assembly on the question of competency, challenged by Mussolini.

In informed quarters it was agreed it would not be possible to delay the question for more than twenty-four hours longer. Leaders hope to evolve by Tuesday some method of handling the question, designed to prevent a rupture. The Assembly must declare its competency or admit it is powerless to deal with major international disputes, it was conceded.

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The Irish Free State was unanimously elected a member of the League of Nations.

Irish delegates took their seats on the floor of the assembly and President Cosgrave of the Free State made a speech. He began talking in Gaelic, but shortly swung into English. Enthusiastic felicitations and applause marked Ireland's election.

CLEARFIELD'S NEW SHOE STORE

Clearfield's newest business establishment is The Shoe Market which opened its doors in welcome to the local trade at 8 o'clock this morning.
It is located at 22 North Second St., opposite Court House, formerly Kanter's Store. This cut price shoe store is under the personal management of Hyman Silverstein, formerly of Altoona, who has established it as a permanent shoe mart for Clearfield.
Mr. Silverstein is widely experienced in his line of business and he has placed a large stock here in anticipation of a lively demand by thrifty shoppers.

A large advertisement in the Progress yesterday contained the Shoe Market's Declaration of merchandising intention and quoted some attractive special prices. Lack of space prevents more quotations of specials but there is an abundance of them which will be recognized by visitors to the store. Souvenirs were given

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 10.

Editor Progress:
At the recent meeting of the state convention of the Sons of Italy held in DuBois, Clearfield came in for a great deal of recognition, as during
State Master Joseph di Silvestro, of Philadelphia, presented the name of Judge Singleton Bell, of Clearfield, for membership, and Judge Bell was unanimously elected to honorary membership in our order, a fact of which Due Palm Lodge, No. 189, is justly proud.

Local representative of Due Palm Lodge, Joseph Ianaro of Daisy street, was elected a trustee of the Grand Lodge to serve for two years.

Due Palm Lodge, No. 189, also brought the prize for best appearance

The following merchants have signified their intention of giving something worth while.
Lottzinger Bros.
A. W. Leonardson & Co.
Lytle Bros.
Brown's Boot Shop
Ross & Woods.
Bloom's Drug Store.
Kurtz Stationery Store.
The Indies Bazaar
W. W. O'Brien
Fill-Jay Stores.
The Reliable Store.
This list will be larger tomorrow. Watch for it.

Today has been one of marked activity thru all the stores in this city where preparations are being made for the coming Dollar Day on Friday of this week.

Merchants have been going from department to department selecting the items which they are going to mark down for the occasion. New goods have been coming in to many of the stores and from what The Progress man has seen there is going to be some wonderful offerings ready for the shoppers when the stores open on Friday morning.

This year a new departure is being made for the benefit of the people in the outlying districts so that they will know all about the event. The Progress is making it possible for the merchants to send their Dollar Day message to every farm within an easy riding distance of this city and this, no doubt, will make added interest in the day. The Wednesday issues of the Progress will be sent broadcast to every town, hamlet and rural route in the section so that these folks may know that there is a real merchandising event for their benefit.

Unusual interest is being taken in the event by merchants who have thus far given the occasion passing notice. This means that there will be an added galaxy of savings awaiting
be on sale at prices that make it possible to save real money.

A prominent watch manufacturer claims that his watch made the dollar famous. Clearfield merchants are going him one better in that they are going to make the dollars coming to Clearfield on Friday next do the duty of a dollar-and-a-half or two dollars.
This is even a greater boon to the people round about inasmuch as the savings to be made are well worth while and come at a time of the year when every pocketbook is strained more or less preparing for the wintry weather ahead.

The advertisements will begin to appear in The Progress on Wednesday evening and you should not only read them then, but should give them a close perusal on Thursday evening
additions.

OLD-TIMER HERE

John Smith, an old-time Clearfield county "wood hick," who has been located up in New York State for some time, is a Clearfield visitor at present, making his home with his stepson, Frank Passmore, at the Leonard House.

HERE TO ATTEND WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roessner, Sr.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roessner, Jr., and Miss Marie Roessner of Titusville of Joseph Roessner and Miss Mabel Kilecnyne, which will occur in St.

Francis church tomorrow morning.

A CORRECTION

In the write up of John G. Mainy, of Bradford, candidate for County Commissioner, published last Thursday, an error in the date of Mr.
Mainy's marriage crept in. The types said he was married in 1890, whereas as a matter of fact, he was married by Squire W. C. Langford, a personal friend, at Mountdale on October 10, 1900.

LOCAL CAMPAIGN FOR JAPAN RELIEF IS BEING PLANNED; ALL SHOULD HAVE A PART IN THIS GREAT WORK OF MERCY

The local campaign for the raising of this community's quota of the special Red Cross call for Japanese Relief is being planned by the Executive Committee of the Clearfield Chapter American Red Cross. This Chapter embraces all of Clearfield county except the DuBois sector, Du-Bois, Borough, Morris, Cooper Townships but Ramey, Madera, Houtdale and all of the other big centers of population are included.

The quota is $3,000, an amount,
believed to be within easy raising in such a large territory, particularly when the need of it is so great.

The Executive Committee will make all plans public as soon as they have been completed. It is known now, however, that they plan a general appeal and purpose putting an official receipt book in every bank in the district and in at least one hundred and fifty business places throughout the district. In addition all churches and Sunday schools are to be asked to observe Japan Relief Day on Sunday September 23rd, and so announce that fact on Sunday, September 16th
to give.

The need is imperative as shown by the dispatches reprinted below:

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 10.—An epidemic of fever has broken out in Tokio, according to a wireless message from Governor General Leonard Wood, who is in the Philippines, to the State Department, picked up here.

Wood urged that a million dollars be placed immediately to the credit of the relief workers in Japan.

Tokio, Sept. 10.—Japan was shaken at noon Sunday by another sharp earthquake.

While the new quake and similar, though perhaps lighter shocks, which preceded it during the last few days add to the terror of the public, it could do little to increase the havoc already wrought.

It was accepted as proof that a vast volcanic upheaval, probably the greatest since the Japanese Isles were thrown up from the sea, is continuing deep down in the earth.

Danger of epidemics of typhoid and dysentery is becoming grave.

Onaka, Sept. 10.—The great dread of Japanese officials is that the plague, reported in many instances in Tokio and Yokohama, may spread.

Local Red Cross organizations are making desperate efforts to mobilize drugs and sanitary supplies throughout Japan to combat the first signs of cholera.

Relief work is being pressed at full speed in an effort to rid the larger cities of conditions that would further the spread of disease.

The last of thousands of corpses of victims of the great quake of September 1st, and the fire that followed, are being incinerated in huge public pyres.

Court House Thursday
Eve. Under Auspices

EXPLAIN PURPOSE

A Public Mass or an open meeting of the ladies of Clearfield and vicinity will be held in the Court House, Thursday evening, Sept. 13th at 8 o'clock under the auspices of "Clearfield Council No. 1 of Republican women." The candidates
platforms. We want a large gathering of ladies. Everybody invited.

Wise observers know that one of the very best ways of strengthening and improving party organization is to build up a group or club more flexible than the party itself, but feeding into the party.

It is the purpose of this new organization to furnish a means by which women may function politically with constantly increasing intelligence and numbers, and to supply a practical channel through which the Republican women of the State may relate the sentiment of their communities to the center of administration and legislation at Harrisburg, and,
in exchange, receive clear statements of administrative and legislative policies and measures for their consideration and for publicity.

Local Councils will be in continual conference and close relation to all organizations of women in their respective communities and wield
the great social and civic influence which the formal party organization lacks.

The main object of the Council is to establish a forum for the political education of Pennsylvania women.

(1) To develop those already interested.

Since their enfranchisement women have demonstrated marked interest and intelligence in the use of the ballot.

(2) To search a bit and interest the indifferent and unenrolled.

Women have thus far voted with a high average of wisdom

214 CASES AWAIT TRIAL AT COURT TO BEGIN SEPT. 21

77 True Bills Found by Grand Jury and 167
Are Hangovers From Previous Courts.

The September Grand Jury completed its labors last week, having been called upon to investigate and pass upon no less than 28 criminal cases.
Of these 77 were returned "true bills," 8 were "ignored" and 1 was continued.

The largest list of criminal cases ever scheduled for trial in a Clearfield county criminal court is awaiting adjustment at the criminal court this term, which begins on Monday, September 17th, and is to continue for two weeks.

The total number of cases on the list for trial is 214, there having been 167 cases continued from last term of court.

Liquor law violations are responsible for almost one-half this large number. The liquor cases number 92.

There are also two murder cases on the list for trial. One of these grew out of a drinking bout down in Lan-gense township, just outside the township. The defendant, Clyde Stelling, is charged with killing Albert E.
Brookman, of Philadelphia, by knocking him over the head with a light.

The second murder case is from Moran, a little village down shore Houtdale. The defendant, Otto Ste-dick, aged about 40, is charged with killing George Rader, aged 55, by hitting him over the head with a light.

If conviction is secured in either case it will undoubtedly be for a considerable degree of murder.

There are 26 crimes against morality on the list.

Motor law violations account for 28 more of the 214 cases, and in many cases the motor law violations are also charged with violation of the liquor law. These motor law violations are becoming entirely too frequent, especially in view of the well known fact that not one-third of these cases of violations are picked up, generally being, allowed to get away with it, until they wreck their car or run into some other motorist.

The Grand Jury finds, as has every other Grand Jury for us, that there are eight or ten times as many cases of these rear window at the jail are still in need of those "wire screens." But read the report for yourself. In 4-3 rows:

To the Hon. Singleton Bell, J. J.

We, the Grand Jury of Clearfield county inquiring in and for September Term, 1923, beg leave to report that having met Sept. 4, 1923, in the Grand Jury room we acted upon 28 indictments. Of these we found 77 true bills and 8 not true bills, and 1 continued until next term of court.

We visited the jail and County House and we recommended the following repairs:

Door on the barn at the jail.
Serves to be placed on rear wheel at the jail; that the wall be repaired near the watering trough on Har-dow street, where the water stands on the pavement; spooling to be repaired on the jail.

The County House we found in a deplorable condition. The case seems to be in a bad state of repair. Mr.
Lambert says it is no shape to sit.
We recommend a new one. Also that a new floor be placed in the kitchen and the floors generally be repaired;
that the plaster near the main entrance be repaired.

As to the Court House we find the building in a filthy and unsanitary condition. We recommend that this condition be remedied. Also we find the following repairs badly needed: Leaky roof fixed, and the plastering and discolored repaired in the many places it is needed.

extended to Judge Bell, District Attorney Arnold, Tipeloff Rowles, the County Commissioners, Sheriff Law-ell and other county officials for their

Respectfully submitted,

GUY B. WHITE, Foreman.

MRS. MAE CONNER, Secretary.

and in gratifying, but not satisfying numbers. The Council will add to Republican strength a continually growing intelligence and enlarged voting list.

(3) To increase representation on party committees Of the 113 members of the State Committee, 78 are men and 37 are women. This should and will be equalized when women are more familiar with party methods.

The Council stands for co-operation with all groups of Republicans to the end that party standards may be elevated and party influence increased. It urges the affiliation of all organizations of Republican women, local and county, for mutual helpfulness.

Miss Frances Geppert returned last evening from a week's visit in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Snyder are entertaining at their home, 296 W.
Front street, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunnell and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. G.

"Money Joe" Wilson, of Punksutawney and DuBois, was in town today on his way to Hagerstown, Md., where he goes to prove his claim to that gold mine full of gold recently found by a state road worker near the Maryland town. Government agents investigated the find, thinking the money to have been planted where it was seen by Grever Bergdoll, the draft dodger, but when they found an old Buick in the car bearing Joe's initials, the whole thing was off and Joe was notified to come and get the gold.

While here this morning on route to Hagerstown Joe informed our "Military correspondent" that the old Buick which established his ownership of the gold was one his father gave him for playing a second ten acre lot one time back in '04 when men were scarce on account of the war. Joe said that Buick was a circus coming to Punksutawney that year and of course all the boys were going. His daddy promised to give him a day off and a ticket to the circus provided he would give a ten acre field the "old man" had just had cleared on a farm near Punksutawney. Joe says he honored right in with such a reward in sight and with the assistance of a yoke of the family team soon had that ten acre lot too down.

When he appeared at the store for his ticket for a day and told him he would have to turn over another ten acre field before he would give him the coveted ticket. But when this second task was done and he again presented himself for the ticket the old gentleman had another five acres he wanted turned up. Joe kicked a little at that and going to the knife case Father Wilson secured the Barlow, which he presented as a sort of peace offering.

Joe says he took the knife, again hitched up the oxen and when he had the remaining five acres "ross side down," he went to the store and got the ticket but the draft officers got the circus employees at Brookville and the circus never got to Punksutawney.

Disgusted, Joe organized his regiment, whose deeds have already been recounted, and the fortunate dropping of that Barlow into the dog when he was picking up his gold preparatory to setting out for home, is now the means of replenishing his gold reserve. Truth, when it is told, is oftentimes stranger than fiction.

HEIRESS TO CHENEY SILK FORTUNE SLAIN BY HUSBAND

The tragedy occurred in the Fisher home. Fisher was a former army pilot.

INFANT DAUGHTER DIES

Ruth Elaine, 3-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGary, of Olmsted, died at the parents' home Thursday afternoon last at 4 o'clock. Death was caused by whooping cough and pneumonia. Besides her parents, the infant is survived by three brothers and four sisters. Interment in Blooming cemetery Saturday.

Lester A. Shull left on Saturday for Davenport, Iowa, where he will attend the Palmer school.

Mrs. F. S. Curry and children have returned home from a weeks visit to Johnsons Manor, Glo and Windber.

FORMER CLEARFIELD BUSINESS MEN HAVE A FINE NEW PLACE

Clearfield friends of Jack Higgins and Robert Heberling, formerly proprietors of the now People's Meat Market stand on Third street, will be glad to know that these young men have met with signal success at Tyrone, where they set up a general grocery, green goods and meat market upon leaving here.

They have just completed a handsome brick building 64x60 feet, two stories high which will house their business place and in addition five families in beautifully finished, commodious apartments. Their meat market is equipped with every convenience and facility known to modern merchandising methods, the entire building is heated from their own plant, the heating plant also furnishing hot water to all apartments.

Seven Points of Superiority:

1. The sole leather used is "FOOT-FITTER" is of the highest quality.
2. The insoles are cut from standard outside leather.
3. "FOOT-FITTER" are the only shoes to the world having the "FOOT-FITTER" and sole leather box tops. This feature prevents slipping of the foot on a smooth outer and inner surface.
4. The insoles are shapely contoured so that they fit snugly against the foot. There is no need or room for a cork filler. A small piece of cork is used to prevent squeaking.
5. The "FOOT-FITTER" inside corker pocket is of great value, for it keeps the foot on the socks. There is no rough contact to rub the foot.
6. "FOOT-FITTER" heels are 1/4-inch longer than ordinary heels. They give additional support to the arch and increase the contact with the floor.
7. The vamp is reinforced with 1/8-inch duck. This strengthens the vamp and the foot, thus keeping the vamp from cracking and holding the shoe in shape.
8. Edmond's "FOOT-FITTER" shoes are called "FOOT-FITTER" shoes because of the foot snugly built on "FOOT-FITTER" last day comfort and doctor's bandage. "FOOT-FITTER" gives comfort, service and assurance.

Zoological Fancy.
According to Cleopatra the ancient Romans would not extinguish a candle, letting it burn out instead. The Romans, he states, was that they considered an animal for it needs nourishment, moves itself, grows with addition, and when extinguished gives a snap, as it falls. The Romans were opposed to ending the life of an animal, a creature. Probably they changed their minds quickly respecting this when a house got a fire.

Curwensville's Own Column

Bruce Norris, son of J. W. Norris, and Sidney Korb, a son of Constable E. Korb, leave Curwensville today for Carlisle College, town of Carlisle where they will remain during the winter term.

The public schools of Curwensville opened this morning for commencement of the term of 1923-24. The first was spent in assembling the pupils and assigning them to their respective grades. The enrollment was about the average number for the first day, but pupils will be dropping in at intervals during the week. It is expected, under the present corps of instructors, that this winter term will be far more successful and interesting than the one which closed in early spring. The seventh and eighth grades have been removed from the stone building and are now quartered in the "Old Quaker" church building, which has been refitted and remodeled into the modern school rooms. Something had to be done in order to lessen the pupil pressure in the stone building, and as the school board had been voted down by Curwensville citizens at last year's election, members of school board had to make other arrangements for more school rooms, hence the moving of the building above mentioned, which, we understand, was given over to borough school by the trustees of the Friends Society, rent free for a stipulated term of three to five years, and to be used for school purposes only, which was a generous act on the part of Messrs Cook and McNaul. That school facilities are not sufficient to accommodate the number of school age young people in this town, is not a fable or an utterance by those who are not conversant with the subject, Curwensville will be compelled to build an up-to-date High School building within the next two years; either that or the entire present ground space surrounding the stone building converted into apartments for school purposes. A good many citizens felt out that the property taxation in Curwensville is too high already, and should a vote be taken authorizing a new High School building the tax burden would become greater than they could bear. Even though it would increase the present tax rate twice over, would it not be a good investment? What better heritage could we leave our posterity than a good, clean education, and one that each and every pupil attending the public schools at the present time would find a valuable asset all through their lives and years after their last school year. A good common school education is something that can never be lost, but it is expected, under the present corps of instructors, that this winter term will be far more successful and interesting than the one which closed in early spring. The seventh and eighth grades have been removed from the stone building and are now quartered in the "Old Quaker" church building, which has been refitted and remodeled into the modern school rooms. He wears an O. P. C. Tortex Shell Frame

When Quincy Adams Sawyer, the most famous lawyer from Boston, made his appearance at Mason's Corner, Linvill Putnam began to get her up for him. Everybody knows Linvill's reputation as the village vamp; but Quincy just wouldn't succumb to her charms. In "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the delightful photoplay with Marjorie Sweet, Lon Chaney, Barbara Harr, John Bowers and a cast of celebrities, Wednesday and Thursday at 10 Driggs Theatre. 9:10/21th

LET HIM BE A REAL BOY IN RIGID SPECTACLE FRAMES THAT WILL PROTECT HIS LENSES

When Young America steps up to the plate and takes a Babe Ruth swing at the "pill," it's essential, from the standpoint of his Dad's pocketbook, that his spectacle frames be the sort that will protect his lenses.

We insist that they be rigid, so that during the most strenuous exercise they will remain in place, correctly fitted.

The combination of these two essentials is embodied in O. P. C. Tortex Shell Frames.

May we show your boy a pair?

SEVEN U.S. SHIPS ARE DESTROYED, MANY DIE, IN DENSE FOG

Ahead, Navy Destroy-
Great Ocean Disaster.

sinking of seven Navy de-
Arguello, has caused the death of between twenty and twenty-five members of the crew.

mined.

The seas are running heavy, possibly reflecting the violence of earthquakes and tidal waves from Japan.
Running full steam ahead, twenty
bury, Chaney, Fuller, S. T. Lee and
selves light miles off shore, the boats plunged into the deep following a leader, each one steered by the light of the last ahead.

ered.

has not yet been found, it is said.
They have been listed as missing.
Thirty-seven received severe injuries; thirty-four a hundred more were cut and bruised during the rescue after swimming through jagged rocks.

clothed and unshaven go be and officers apart from the wreck's havoc,
points to San Diego.

warned eleven destroyer squadrons,
and, escaped. Because of the darkness of the shore, however, they
up bodies and rafts, which the gov-
wreckage.

sailors left their lives yesterday in
correspondent of the Santa Barbara "Morning Press," who went to the scene.

relief train was on the way here to-
wrecked destroyers are total losses,
naval officials.

of disasters unprecedented in the history of Pacific coast navigation,
Arguello and the shores of the
to shipping men.

Thirty members of the crew of the United States destroyer Young,
rocks off Point Arguello in the fog last Saturday night, were reported

impenetrable fog that hung along the coast line and are being slowly
day.

Radio Tolls of Crash
San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Eleven
people were injured when five United
fleet.

Tokio, Sept. 9.—Twenty-three thou-
injured at Yokohama in the earth-
announcement.

Tokio was destroyed.

dead.

that up to Thursday morning the government had directed inquiries over 32,564
warehouses and yards alone.

It has been learned that many pas-
tunnel near Karuizawa.

were killed or injured and many houses

a. m. today.

NEAR KARTHAUS

scene of two automobile wrecks Saturday and Sunday morning.
under the machine. Mr. Force was quite severely injured and was taken to the Phillipsburg hospital for medical treatment. Barefield suf-
bruises and cuts.

ters from Munson, who had just
and other equipment. Steve Koval,
of Munson, was piloting the outfit.
When the top of Karthaus hill was

tency, challenged by Mussolini.

its competency or admit it is power-

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The Irish Free State was unanimously elected a
the floor of the assembly and Presi-
made a speech. He began talking in
applause marked Ireland's election.

CLEARFIELD'S NEW

SHOE STORE

Clearfield's newest business estab-
opposite Court House, formerly Kan-
ter's Store. This cut price shoe store
permanent shoe mart for Clearfield.
Mr. Silverstein is widely experienced
placed a large stock here in antici-
shoppers.

gress yesterday contained the Shoe
ing intention and quoted some at-

Editor Progress:
Judge Singleton Bell, of Clearfield, for membership. Judge Bell was unanimously elected to honorary
which Due Palme Lodge, No. 139, is justly proud.

Local representative of Due Palme Lodge, Joseph Janaro of Daisy street, was elected a trustee of the Grand Lodge to serve for two years.

Due Palme Lodge, No. 189, also

while.
Loitzinger Bros.
A. W. Leonardson & Co.
Lytle Bros.
Ross & Woods.
Bloom's Drug Store.
Kurtz Stationery Store.
The Indies Bazaar.
W. W. O'Brien.
Fil-Jay Stores.
The Reliable Store.
This list will be larger tomorrow. Watch for it.

of this week.

the stores and from what The Pro-
Friday morning.

the quilting district so that they will
sage to every farm within an easy distance of this city and this, no doubt, will make added interest for the day. The Wednesday issue of the
dising event for their benefit.

be on sale at prices that make it possible to save real money.

famous. Clearfield merchants are going to make the dollar coming to
of a dollar-and-a-half of two dollars.
weather ahead.

The advertisements will begin to
day evening and you should not only
a close perusal on Thursday evening
additions.

In the write up of John G. Main,
day, an error in the date of Mr.
Main's marriage crept in. The types
as a matter of fact, he was married by "Squire W. C. Langford, a personal friend, at Houtzdale on October 10,

special Red Cross call for Japanese
Chapter American Red Cross. This
Bois Borough, Morris T. Cooper
Townships but Ramey, Madera, Houtzdale and all of the other big centers of population are included.

The quota is $3,000, an amount,
when the need of it is so great.

make all plans public as soon as they are completed. It is known now however, that they plan a general ap-
district. In addition all churches and Sunday schools are to be asked to observe Japan Relief Day on Sunday September 23rd, and so announce that fact on Sunday, September 16th
to give.

the dispatches reprinted below:

epidemic of fever has broken out in
sage from Governor General Leonard
the State Department, picked up here.

the spread of disease.

victims of the great quake of September 1st, and the fire that followed, are
pyres.

Evening Under Auspices

WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN

MASS MEETING

A Public Mass or an open
under the auspices of "Clearfield Council No. 1 of Republican women." The candidates
body invited.

to build up a group or club more flex-
into the party.

It is the purpose of this new organi-
late the sentiment of their communi-
and legislation at Harrisburg, and,
of administrative and legislative poli-
eration and for publicity.

organizations of women in their re-
lacks.

education of Pennsylvania women.

(1) To develop those already interested.
Since their enfranchisement
gence in the use of the ballot.
To search out and interest the

Grand Jury and 167
Are Hangovers From Previous Courts.

The September Grand Jury com-
upon no less than 24 criminal cases.
and 167 were "hungers" and 1 were continued.

county criminal court is awaiting disposal at the criminal court this term, which begins on Monday, September 17th, and is to continue for two weeks.
167 cases continued from last term of court.

Liquor law violations are respon-
number. The liquor cases number 92.

out of a drinking bout down in Low-rance township, just outside the township. The defendant, Clyde Stelling, is charged with killing Albert B.
Brookman, of Philadelphia, by knocking him over the head with a chair.

Houtzdale, a little mining town about Houtzdale. The defendant, Mike Bro-dick, aged about 40, is charged with killing George Redder, aged 50, by hitting him over the head with a light.

case it will undoubtedly be for a minor degree of murder.

ity on the list.

more of the 214 cases, and in many
fact that not one-third of this class of violators are picked up, generally be-
other motorist.

The Grand Jury finds, as has every other Grand Jury for its, these past eight or ten terms of court, that these rear windows at the jail are still in need of those "wise women." But
below:

Grand Jury's Report.

We, the Grand Jury of Clearfield
county inquiring in and for Septem-
that having met Sept. 4, 1923, a the Grand Jury room we acted upon 26
indictments. Of these we found 77
true bills and 167 not true bills, and 1
continued until next term of court.

We visited the jail and County
House and we recommended the following repairs:

Screens to be placed on rear window at the jail; that the walls be re-near the watering trough on Houtzdale street, where the water stands on the
on the jail.

cleanly condition. The site seems to be in a bad state of repair. Mr.
Lansberry says it is no shape to fill.
and the floors generally be repaired;
that the plaster near the main entrance be repaired.

condition. We recommend that this
the following repairs badly needed: Leaky roof fixed, and the plastering and skimming repaired in the many places it is needed.

extended to Judge Bell, District Attorney Arnold, Tipstaff Rowie, the County Commissioners, Sheriff Law-all and other county officials for their
Respectfully submitted,
GUY E. WHITE, Foreman.
MRS. MAE CONNER, Secretary.

By J. D. C.

"Lucky Joe" Wilson, of Punxsutawney and DuBois, was in town today on his way to Magerstown, Md., where he goes to prove his claim to that pesky keg full of gold recently found by a state road worker near the Maryland town. Government agents investigated the find, thinking the money to have been planted where it was found by Grover Bergdoll, the draft deserter, but when they found an old tin box in the can bearing Joe's initials, the whole thing was off and Joe was notified to come and get the gold.

While here this morning on route to Magerstown Joe informed our "literary correspondent" that the old tin box which established his ownership of the gold was one his father gave him for plowing a second ten acre field one time back in '64 when men were scarce on account of the war. Joe said that there was a circus coming to Punxsutawney that year and of course all the boys were going. His daddy promised to give him a day off and a ticket to the circus provided he would plow a ten acre field the "old man" had just had cleared on a farm near Punxsutawney. Joe says he burned right in with such a reward in sight and with the assistance of a yoke of the family oxen soon had that ten acre lot free down.

When he appeared at the store for his ticket Joe's dad told him he would have to turn over another ten acre field before he would give him the coveted ticket. But when this second task was done and he again presented himself for the ticket the old gentleman had another five acres

he wanted turned up. Joe kicked a little at that and going to the knife case Father Wilson secured the Barlow, which he presented as a sort of peace offering.

Joe says he took the knife, again hitched up the oxen and when he had the remaining five acres "ross side down," he went to the store and got the ticket but the draft officers got the circus employees at Brookville and the circus never got to Punxsutawney.

Disgusted, Joe organized his regiment, whose deeds have already been recounted, and the fortunate dropping of that Barlow into the keg when he was packing up his gold preparatory to setting out for home, is now the means of replenishing his gold reserve. Truth, when it is told, is oftentimes stranger than fiction.

Ruth Elaine, 3-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGary, of Olinia, died at the parents' home Thursday afternoon last at 4 o'clock. Death was caused by whooping cough and pneumonia. Besides her parents, the infant is survived by three brothers and four sisters. Interment in Blooming cemetery Saturday.

Lester A. Shull, left on Saturday for Davenport, Iowa, where he will attend the Palmer school.

Mrs. F. S. Curry and children have returned home from a weeks visit to Johnstown, Nanticoke and Windber.

Clearfield friends of Jack Biggins and Robert Heberling, formerly proprietors of the now People's Meat Market stand on Third street, will be glad to know that these young men have met with signal success at Tyre, where they set up a general grocery, green goods and meat market upon leaving here.

They have just completed a handsome brick building 64x60 feet, two stories high which will house their business place and in addition five families in beautifully finished, commodious apartments. Their meat market is equipped with every convenience and facility known to modern merchandising methods, the entire building is heated from their own plant, the heating plant also furnishing hot water to all apartments.

A private report was received adding the McDermitt and the Percival to the list but Navy headquarters here said they were informed these vessels were safe and that they discredited the private advice.

1. The sole leather used is "FOOT-FITTER" is of the highest quality. Even the insoles are cut from standard outside leathers.
2. "FOOT-FITTER" are the only shoes in the world having cut leather and sole leather box toes. This feature prevents slipping of the smooth outer and inner surface.
3. The insoles are shoulder channelled so that they fit snugly under the foot. There is no need of taping for a soft floor. A small piece of cork is used to prevent squeaking.
4. The Cutskin inside counter is of great value, for it keeps the foot on the socks. There is no room for the foot to rub against.
5. "FOOT-FITTER" heels are 1/4-inch longer than ordinary heels and additional support to the arch and increase the comfort and ease of the foot.
6. The vamp is reinforced with 1/2-inch duck. This strengthens the support of the foot, this keeps the water from creeping and holds the shoe in place.
7. Edmond's "FOOT-FITTER" shoes are called "FOOT-FITTER" shoes because the foot snugly fits in, and the vamp is reinforced with 1/2-inch duck. The foot snugly fits in, and the vamp is reinforced with 1/2-inch duck. The foot snugly fits in, and the vamp is reinforced with 1/2-inch duck.

A CHALLENGE TO LAW AND ORDER

The recent dynamiting outrages down at Surveyor, if they are the work of dissatisfied or striking workmen, are without doubt the worst blow that could have been struck against labor, organized or unorganized. We know nothing of this controversy between employer and employe down at Surveyor, but we do know there is no place in this country for the dastard and coward who attempts to force his demands by intimidation and property destruction through the use of dynamite, planted under cover of darkness and left to explode regardless of the possible loss of life to those the poor degenerate hates with such deadly hate, or the entirely innocent person who might happen to be in the building or vicinity or might happen along about the time the explosive let go.

There is no place in Clearfield County where I. W. W. methods will be tolerated, and it is the duty of every good citizen of Surveyor and Clearfield County generally, to lend every assistance to the authorities in their efforts to ferret out and arrest the desperadoes who are responsible for this series of outrages.

We don't believe he is a union man and we know, and so does everybody else, that he does not represent organized labor in Clearfield County when he perpetrates such an outrage. He or they may scare a few women and children for a time, but the red-blooded manhood of Clearfield County, union and non-union, will brook no such assault upon Pennsylvania law and order and American institutions.

There is a place in Clearfield for such dastards as these dynamiters—that is behind the bars of the Clearfield County jail, with a very short stop here and a long, long stay following that in the penitentiary at Pittsburgh.

Progress Editorial For Women

A LAY SERMON FROM A BIG BUSINESS MAN
By FLORENCE DAVIES

Big business gives up some of its secrets now and then. They are always of interest, whether one commends them or not.

A man who spent $4,000,000,000 in purchasing supplies for the Allies during the later years of the war, one of the busy but inconspicuous members of the firm of the J. P. Morgan Co., was asked how he selected the force which aided him in performing such a task to the satisfaction of those he served.

"First of all," he answered, "we made sure of a man's absolute integrity, loyalty and ability to keep his mouth shut."

Edward Stettinius, the man in question, was himself chosen because he met these very requirements. Look them over. Don't they seem almost as blanket-wide as Elbert Hubbard's dictum, "Do your work well and be kind?"

We see a good tip right here, both for girls in business and for women in the home. Integrity, loyalty, ability to keep one's mouth shut. Is it square, or loyal, girls, to spend long quarter hours in the dressing room gossiping with other time wasters while vanity cases are in action?

And certainly the thoughtless or malicious office helper who broadcasts her employer's affairs, is neither loyal or square. As for the careless wife who lets her husband's business confidences leak from her lips as thru a sieve, is no helpmate in the good old fashioned sense. She may not mean to do harm, but "evil is wrought from the want of thought as well as want of heart."

Keeping one's mouth shut is one lead to success in the family as much as in the firm of the J. P. Morgan Co., or the wider field of service for the allies.

Mr. Stettinius is back with his firm again, we are told, as close mouthed, as careful of his employers' interests as ever. It isn't likely he thought he preached a lay sermon when he answered that interviewer's question, but we think he did. All that is left, for any of us to serve, and who doesn't?—is to heed and abide by it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferguson, of Weaver street are in Chicago this week attending the convention of the Traveling Engineer's Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kephart, son Joseph, and Mr. McGrath, returned home from their tour to different sections of New York, Ohio, and Southern parts of Canada.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM B. POTTER

The funeral of the late William B. Potter was held at Karthaus Sunday afternoon. The services were held in the Lutheran church at Keewaydin and were conducted by Rev. E. Roy Hauser of St. John's Lutheran church of Clearfield.

The esteem in which the deceased was held in the community was attested by the very large concourse of sorrowing friends attending the funeral.

President H. B. Powell and Mr. Potter's fellow directors and the employees of the County National Bank and many other Clearfield business associates and friends of the deceased were present to pay the last sad tribute of respect to one whom they loved for his rugged honesty, sturdy citizenship and general worth as a man.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Keewaydin in sight of the house in which Mr. Potter was born.

The pall bearers were E. E. Orcutt, Ed. L. Shirey, John B. Kennard, John F. Leitzinger, A. K. Wright

If your skin is so tender that you expect sunburn, rub it well with Vicks before exposure.

After sunburn, apply Vicks gently—don't rub in. It soothes the tortured skin and often prevents blistering.

For any outdoor vacation, Vicks is "standard equipment." It saves attacks of hay fever, asthma, catarrh and summer colds.

It's fine, too, for sore muscles, tired feet, poison oak, or ivy, and for bites and stings.

Arrange Your Work So As To Have DOLLAR DAY Set Aside For Shopping Dollar Day comes next Friday and you will want to come to the stores who are going into this event.

There is a store representative of every line of business in the city going into the event. This means that you may get something for your personal adornment, you may get something that will help refurnish your home, you may get something to help cut down your grocery bills—you will save money on something that will materially fit into every phase of your life for the next 6 months.

Arrange to come early. If you live out of the city arrange to come by auto, jitney, train, wagon or huggy. It's immaterial how you get here, but arrange to get here anyhow.

The ads will begin to appear on Wednesday night in this paper. Read them all—read them closely and then make arrangements to be able to come and partake of the offerings.

THE CLEARFIELD MERCHANTS

Bruce Norris, son of J. W. Norris, and Sidney Korb, a son of Constable E. Korb, leave Curwensville today for Carlisle College, town of Carlisle where they will remain during the winter term.

The public schools of Curwensville opened this morning for commencement of the term of 1923-24. The first was spent in assembling the pupils and assigning them to their respective grades. The enrollment was about the average number for the first day, but pupils will be dropping in at intervals during the week. It is expected, under the present corps of instructors, that this winter term will be far more successful and interesting than the one which closed in early spring. The seventh and eighth grades have been removed from the stone building and are now quartered in the "Old Quaker" church building, which has been refitted and remodeled into the modern school rooms. Something had to be done in order to lessen the pupil pressure in the stone building, and as the school board had been very wise in the past, they had been wise down by Curwensville citizens at not thorough election, members of school board had to make other arrangements for more school rooms, hence the moving of the building above mentioned, which, we understand, was given over to borough school by the trustees of the Friends Society, rent free for a stipulated term of three to five years, and to be used for school purposes only, which was a generous act on the part of Messrs Cook and McNaul. That school facilities are not sufficient to accommodate the number of school age young people in this town, is not a fable or an utterance by those who are not conversant with the subject, Curwensville will be

When Quincy Adams Sawyer, the most young lawyer from Boston, made his appearance at Mason's Corner, Linny Putnam began to get her up for him. Everybody knows Linny's reputation as the village vamp; but Quincy just wouldn't succumb to her charms. compelled to build an up-to-date High School building within the next two years; either that or the entire present ground space surrounding the stone building converted into apartments for school purposes. A good many citizens felt out that the property taxation in Curwensville is too high already, and should a vote be taken authorizing a new High School building the tax burden would become greater than they could bear. Even though it would increase the present tax rate twice over, would it not be a good investment? What better heritage could we leave our posterity than a good, clean education, and one that each and every pupil attending the public schools at the present time would find a valuable asset all through their lives and years after their last school year. A good common school education is something that can never be lost, but it is expected, under the present corps of instructors, that this winter term will be far more successful and interesting than the one which closed in early spring. The seventh and eighth grades have been removed from the stone building and are now quartered in the "Old Quaker" church building, which has been refitted and remodeled into the modern school rooms. LET HIM BE A REAL BOY IN RIGID SPECTACLE FRAMES THAT WILL PROTECT HIS LENSES

When Young America steps up to the plate and takes a Babe Ruth swing at the "pill," it's essential, from the standpoint of his Dad's pocketbook, that his spectacle frames be the sort that will protect his lenses.
